

Northwood Charitable Foundation's

Fall Festival Raffle & Dinner

Northwood Charitable Foundations hosted a Fall Festive Raffle and Dinner on Friday, November 4th to help raise money for Beatitude House, a local charity that supports disadvantage women and children. The event was held at the Lake Club in Poland and was attended by Northwood agents and staff, as well as, Congressman Bill Johnson and representatives from the Beatitude House.

The auction and dinner started at 7pm with DJ Jim Loboy, who volunteered his services, as the emcee. Sister Patricia McNicholas and Casey Bertollette were on hand as representatives from the Beatitude House as was Beatitude House board members Barb Fisher and Sue Pechkurow. The Beatitude House serves disadvantaged women and children to break the cycle of homelessness and poverty. They are committed to improving the lives of disadvantaged women and children in Mahoning Valley through creating homes, providing educational opportunities, and fostering healthy families.

From the Fall Festival Dinner and Raffle, the Charitable Foundation had raised over $6,000 to give to the Beatitude House. The money was raised through ticket proceeds, silent auction, and basket raffles that were held at the event. The Charitable Foundation is committed to distribute 100% of every dollar raised. Expenses of the foundation are underwritten by Northwood Realty Services.
